SGO Creates Student Council

Student Forum Meets Monthly SGO Adds Facebook Page

SUNY Ulster's Student Government Association (SGO) has created a new Student Council. Each campus club should send a representative to serve on the Council which meets the 2nd Wednesday of every month in VAN 110. The Student Council offers an opportunity for more student engagement in campus life and is a forum for students to express their grievances, opinions, concerns and ideas. SGO leaders hope the Council will help increase student life at Ulster. SGO officers are Kitti Hamberger, president and Lindsey Albert, treasurer. The Student Trustee is Ashley Woodill. To participate email: hambergk86@my.sunyulster.edu

Carlos Gonzalez, 19, Ellenville and Jevi Verjoni, 19, Marlboro join Stan Letus, Viet Nam Marine veteran and Ed Tesseyman, Navy WW II veteran at Events Planning Council's sponsored Veterans Luncheon in the Student Life Center last week.

Student Opinion

Question: How would you increase student life and engagement on campus?

Anthony Reffelt: 18 yrs. old, Kingston. "Students need a place to hang out like a recreational center."

Kitti Hamberger: 24 yrs. old, Eddyville. "Students need to be more involved and have a voice on campus issues."

Lyndsey Wells: 24 yrs old, Tillson. "Students should network more through the clubs."

Anthoney Dair: 18 yrs old, Kingston. "The college should have more social events, more events in the gym."

Kyle Carella: 18 yrs old, Tillson. "The students should pick the events and concerts."

Vera White: 37 yrs. old, Kingston. "We need to create more student pride."

Ulster Visual Arts Majors Chosen for SUNY-wide Exhibit

Congratulations to Visual Arts majors Cassie Ottulich, Darlene Scialpi, Gulnar Babayeva, Anna Van Laan, Lindsey O'Leary, Sara Lewis, Lauren Perea and Samantha McKnight who have been chosen to represent SUNY Ulster in the SUNY-wide art exhibition. SUNY Chancellor Nancy Zimpher was on hand to congratulate the students at the opening reception at the Plaza Gallery at SUNY Albany. The exhibit runs to February, 2012.
