SGO/Student Council Holds First Meeting

SGO Opens New Offices

The Student Government Organization (SGO) held its first meeting of the Student Council on September 12 in its newly renovated offices in VAN 155 (next door to the college book store) SGO President Jesse Hicks, Vice-President Samantha Gilman and Secretary/Treasurer Ethan Burwell conducted the meeting. The newly formed Student Council is made up representatives from all campus clubs. The Council meets every second Wednesday of the month at 1 p.m. In order to maintain club status and receive SGO funding, clubs must be active on the Student Council. President Donald Katt and Vice President Ann Marrott attended the meeting as guests. The Council's next meeting is scheduled for October 10 at 1 p.m.

Completion Day: October 3

Student Opinion: Why did you choose to enroll at SUNY Ulster?

Jonathan Savosh: 19 yrs. old, New Paltz. "Really simple. Close to home and I can afford it here."

Greg Johnsmeyer: 19 yrs. old, West Hurley. "I transferred back up here from Morrisville, decided to come home."

Vonnitta Townsend: 36 yrs. old, Saugerties. "I heard a lot of good things about the nursing program."

Savannah Baker: 18 yrs. old, High Falls. "My parents are alumni. They met acting in plays here so I thought I'd keep up the tradition."

Kessena Obaro: 23 yrs. old, Kingston. "I heard the Human Services program was good here."

Grace Moore: 19 yrs. old, Kingston. "I transferred from the Univ. of Scranton to come home and study speech pathology."

Artist-in-Residence Series

Brendan Burke, Producing Artistic Director of the Shadowland Theater in Ellenville, has been selected as this year's artist in the Larry Berk Artist-in-Residence Series.
