

Praise for Artist-in-Residence

Brendan Burke, Artistic Director at the Shadowland Theater in Ellenville, conducted workshops as part of the Larry Berk Artist-in-Residence Series. Workshop: February 27 from 5-7 p.m. FROM PAGE TO STAGE: A PEEK INSIDE THE REHEARSAL ROOM. Quimby Theater. Free and open to the public.

Theater majors praised Burke's residency at SUNY Ulster:

Geneva Turner: "It was so helpful to watch a professional director work with other actors. I am excited to explore at the 'Page to Stage' my craft and take it into new directions."

Matt Wilhelm: "Excited to get up and work again! Sometimes I feel vulnerable in front of professionals and Brendan helped me broaden my understanding of acting and helped me discover my talents."

Tim Bruck: "Brendan taught me how to audition successfully and inspired me to audition for Shadowland's upcoming season!"

Shaking it!

SUNY Ulster students got crazy dancing in hopes of winning the SUNY-wide Harlem Shake-

Off competition. The group created this 30 second video from the song "Harlem Shake." Check it out and vote for SUNY Ulster for Best Video at blog.suny.edu/2013/02/suny-does-the-harlem-shake

Dance! Theater! Entrepreneurship!

As part of the Darlene L. Pfeiffer Center for Entrepreneurial Studies "Entrepreneur Extraordinaire Speaker Series," a husband and wife creative team shared their insights. Susan Epstein, a professional dancer and John Hickey, a theater production professional trained at the world-renowned Tisch School of the Arts at NYU, showed attendees that entrepreneurship is not just for business students.

Ms. Epstein and Mr. Hickey shared their journey from the world of dance and theater to their marketing consulting business for the dance and entertainment industries that has operated successfully for over 20 years. Students enjoyed the speakers' story and loved the amazing videos, developed for the dance wear industry and CBS that the couple shared.
