

CAMPUS LIFE bulletin

SUNY Ulster
Start Here. Go Far.

Volume 6, Number 7
April 2, 2013

Dodging for a Cause

Before Spring Break started, students and faculty participated in a spirited Dodgeball Tournament on March 22, sponsored by the Business Club. Teams of players joined in the fun in the Senate Gymnasium. Portions of the proceeds will be donated to Ulster Community College Foundation, Inc's Lights for Learning program.

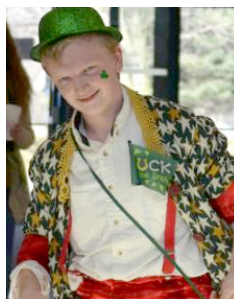

Everyone's Lucky at St. Patrick's Day Lunch

The luck of the Irish was with three winners of raffles drawn at the St. Patrick's Day luncheon celebration. Korey Ford and Sheleigh Sweeney went home with ultimate movie passes to Regal Cinema and Hannah Seaman won a $25 gift card to the College Bookstore. The event featured live bagpipe music, gold coins from the SGO and lime jello with the traditional corned beef and cabbage.

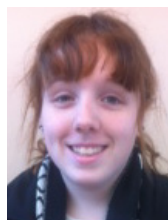

Pictured at the event: Theater major and member of the Empty Tables Workshop group Tim Bruck was leprechaun for the day. Paul Alley, emceed the event.

Shelagh Sweeney

Korey Ford

Hannah Seaman

STUDENT QUESTION:

What did you do over spring break?

Anthony Avery, 18
Ellenville
Relaxed and hung out with family.

Brittany Chadderdon, 25
Purling
Went to meet niece in Alabama.

Fatimah Franklin, 25
Kingston
Tattooed a client.

Jason Belafonte, 30
Jamaica
Did flight training on a single engine aircraft.

Kymmie Clark, 19
New Paltz
Went to the Bronx Zoo.

Victoria Fitzgerald, 20
Saugerties
Trained for self-defense.

SGO Elections Coming Soon

Elections for 2013-2014 SGO officers will be held on April 29-30. Get involved and consider running for these available positions: President, Vice-President, Secretary, Treasurer, Student Trustee and three Association Directors. To be eligible to run students must be at least 18 years old, have completed at least 24 credits by the end of this semester and have a minimum GPA of 2.5. Interested candidates should stop by the SGO office or send an email to sgo@sunyulster.edu for further details.

Community Creations Comes to Life

Students in our Entrepreneurial Studies program have been working hard on launching their new business, Community Creations. Students learned how to program the cash register, donated by our cafeteria manager, and met with the kiosk builder. Stay tuned for updates. The business showcasing hand-crafted locally made goods will launch in the fall.

Picnic Fun Poll

What fun event do you want at the May 1 SGO picnic? Vote in our poll on the SGO's Facebook page. Human bowling currently has the lead. The gladiator joust and bungee run are tied for second. Pick your fave today.

Upcoming Events

April 3

Hear entrepreneurial success stories and ask questions with panelists Darlene Pfeiffer, local KFC franchise owner, investment expert Scott Lask and Amy Stillwagon of Newburgh Envelope, from 1 to 2 p.m., in the St. John Conference Room in Clinton Hall.

April 11-21

SUNY Ulster's Theater department presents Waiting for Lefty with audience involvement. Free for students. Eight live shows in Quimby Theater.

April 11

Pulitzer Prize winning poet Jorie Graham will speak as part of the Ellen Robbins Poetry Forum, 10:10 a.m., in the College Lounge.

April 16

Acclaimed Landscape Design Expert Darrel Morrison will present Landscape Design as Ecological Art at 2 p.m., in the College Lounge. As part of the Elizabeth Gross Lecture Series.

Time to Register for Fall 2013!

With April here, it's time to Register Now and meet with your advisor. Classes fill up quickly so don't delay if you want to get what you need. Schedule time to review your requirements with your advisor, whose name can be found on the portal under "Student Resources," in the "Registration Tools" section. The clock is ticking. Early registration runs through April 26. Got questions? Call: 1-800-724-0833 or 687-5075. Email: reginfo@sunyulster.edu

