GERMAN FOR BEGINNERS I

A gentle introduction to learning the basic vocabulary centered around frequently-encountered topics: common classroom objects, house and household, family members, counting and the calendar, etc. Handouts will allow you to expand on some basic sentence patterns, emphasizing skills in asking and answering questions that can lead to some basic conversational proficiency.

Instructor: R Wixom taught English in Germany and German in the US.

NCC 1963 W 3/4-25 6-7:30pm KSU $109

CHINESE FOR BEGINNERS I

Learn beginning Chinese while looking into the important elements of the Chinese culture which includes art, philosophy and literature. For example, all Chinese paintings are based upon the principle of writing Chinese characters so if you know how to write the character, you will already have an inkling into the deeper aspects of the culture. You will learn to speak, write and read at an initial level and learn the principles of construction of the language. Instructor: N. Chassman
