NEW! MAKE YOUR OWN FABRIC CAMP
Ages 8-15
In this camp, you will learn how to create unique, one of a kind fabric that can be used to create fashion pieces or accessories. Students will learn different techniques to dye and design their own yardage of fabric. They will use various printmaking and hand dyeing techniques such as marbling, shibori, and eco dye. Students will also learn some basic sewing skills and hand sewn embellishment like Boro stitching. Students will create an individual project with their fabric, or use it to create with during the second week of camp. No previous knowledge of sewing or printmaking is required.

Educational Leader: Michelle Moore, SUNY Ulster Fine Art Program alumna, FIT Textile/Surface Design Alumna, Fine Arts Instructor SUNY Ulster and owner of Michelle Moore Designs, surface pattern designer company.

Materials fee: $20, payable in camp.
