PRESIDENTIAL SEARCH

Campus Update - May 1, 2015

To: Members of the Campus Community:

I am delighted to report the presidential search committee has been hard at work and the search has made tremendous progress in the last few weeks. In April, Isaacson Miller, the firm assisting us with the search, presented the committee with 20 candidates from around the country with a variety of backgrounds and experiences. The search committee discussed each candidate and selected nine with whom the committee held confidential interviews this past week. The search committee was pleased with the pool and selected four finalists who will visit SUNY Ulster to meet with faculty, students, staff, administrators, board members and community members. We are working to organize the campus visits as quickly as possible to ensure they are completed before commencement. The candidates' names will be announced next week. In the meantime, please mark your calendars with the dates and times below. We know this is a busy time of year, but we are most grateful for your participation as we show the candidates all that SUNY Ulster has to offer with our talented students and dedicated faculty and staff. The Board of Trustees wants and values the feedback of the campus community. Online surveys will be made available to share your thoughts on the finalists and their fit for the presidency after each visit.

Finally, I would also like to thank the search committee members for the time and hard work they put into the search process. It was a diverse committee that was incredibly productive, respectful, and cohesive as they worked in the best interest of the College to carefully deliberate and select a strong pool of finalists.
