

High School Completion Status

Provide one of the following documents that indicate the student's high school completion status when the student will begin college.

- A copy of the student's high school diploma.
- A copy of the student's final official high school transcript that shows the date when the diploma was awarded.
- A copy of the student's General Education Development (GED) certificate or GED transcript.
- An academic transcript that indicates the student successfully completed at least a two-year program that is acceptable for full credit toward a bachelor's degree.
- The student must provide a letter from the superintendent of the school district in which the student resides, attesting to the student's completion of home instruction meeting the requirements of Section 100.10 of the regulations of the Commissioner of Education or equivalent for students who reside outside of New York State.

If the student is unable to obtain the documentation listed above, he or she must contact the financial aid office.
